

ROLLED AVENA

Is the BEST grade of Rolled Oats made.

We have just unloaded a lot of the above and other CEREALS direct from the mill, consisting of:—

Granulated Corn Meal, Bolted Meal, Amber Graham, Rye Meal, Whole Wheat Flour and the famous A. M. C. Flour, the best Family Flour made.

The above goods are strictly fresh and warranted.

TOWER COMPANY,

Both Phones.

Barton, Vermont

SCREEN DOORS,

75c each

White and Gold Toilet Set,

$2.45

One Dinner Set left for $5.

Another assortment of

Tapestry Art Squares $15.

We have a large line of

Tapestry, Brussels and Axminsters

Art Squares on hand.

Prices Low.

A few remnants of Wall Paper left.

See our Dining Tables.

WHIPPLE, FRENCH & CO.

Barton Landing,

Vermont

Confidence in the Jeweler.

When you buy jewelry you need to have confidence that you are not being sold an inferior article at the price charged for first-class goods. We make a rule to always represent goods as they really are, and charge a price as low as consistent. You need have no fear but that you are obtaining full value for your money when you purchase here. We are now showing a larger and better assortment than ever.

F. M. ALLCHURCH,

Watchmaker and Jeweler

Optician and Engraver

Barton Landing, Vt.

DIAMONDS

One of the best selections I have ever shown.

It is well worth the inspection of any one, whether wishing to buy or not,

FREDERICK M. ALLCHURCH,

Scientific Optician,

Barton Landing,

Vermont

LOCAL NEWS.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.
Congregational Church Notes.

The regular preaching services will begin again in the Congregational church on Sunday, Aug. 19, at which service the Rev. B. M. Wright of Orange, Conn., a Yale classmate of the pastor, will preach.

SOUTH BARTON.

Eddie Butterfield of Manchester, N. H., is visiting his parents.

Mrs. Charles Cheney and Lillian were on the sick list last week.

Mrs. B. C. Berry, who has been camping at May Pond, has returned home.

Mrs. Danforth of Lyndonville recently visited her daughter, Mrs. O. B. Willard.

Charles Bloss of Attleboro, Mass., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley.

Mrs. Rufus Miller of Lyndonville spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheney.

Mrs. L. H. Gordon, who has been stopping with her parents, has returned to her home in Lyndonville.

Mrs. Lewis Lord and two children of Montpelier are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Forrest.

Reta Drown of Barton Landing spent a few days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Drown.

ALBANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sargent of Rutland are visiting in town.

Andrew Darling of Medford, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Della Honey.

Mrs. Jefferson Cowles and Mrs. Chas. C. Brown from Allston, Mass., are visiting friends.

Mrs. Betsey Pierce died last Thursday. The remains were taken to Brownington for interment.

A report of the Old Home Week and Centennial celebration will be found in the vicinity items.

A republican rally at which Fletcher D. Proctor and F. G. Fleetwood will speak, will be held here next Tuesday, Aug. 21, at 1 o'clock p. m.

Among those of our visiting friends who have returned to their homes are Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cowles, Roland Chafey, Ed. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stevens.

The ladies of the Congregational church will have an entertainment in the church Friday evening, Aug. 17th. They have been fortunate in securing the services of Frank O. French of St. Johnsbury as reader, which insures a first-class entertainment. Every one is invited.

The Willing Workers of the Congregational church held a lawn party at the home of Wallace Eldridge Friday evening. A large number of guests attended. Refreshments were served. A large bonfire and fireworks set off on the hill behind the house added to the evening's entertainment.

All pupils attending high schools or academies for higher instruction than taught in the schools of Albany, and who have not previously taken examinations, must apply to Mrs. James Cameron, town superintendent, if tuition is paid by the town.

E. A. ANDRUS,
J. N. URLE,
A. C. CHENEY,
School Directors.

SOUTH ALBANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase left Friday morning on an excursion for the west.

Miss Lemyra Farrand of Hardwick has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Flanders.

William Graham, Joe Grant, Elwin Graves and Chester Anderson started Friday night for Minneapolis.

Misses Cathryn and Bertha Coventry, who have been spending a few weeks with Rev. and Mrs. E. Trowbridge, have returned to their home in Burlington. They were accompanied by Mrs. Trowbridge and Clement Cushman.

BROWNINGTON.

George Harrison of Franklin visited at Allen Vincent's last week.

Mr. Lower from Boston, Mass., has been spending a few days with his parents.

Mrs. A. C. Sawyer of Milford, N. H., was recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Orvin Marsh.

Mrs. T. O. Sheldon and three children from Melrose, Mass., are visiting at F. E. Hitchins'.

Oscar Marsh of Williamsburgh, Mich., was here last week visiting his father, Orvin Marsh, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Canning have been entertaining friends and relatives of Montpelier, St. Johnsbury, Stowe and East Charleston the past week.

EVANSVILLE.

R. Elliott and family have been visiting at J. W. Moore's the past week.

Clarence McDowell and Miss Nettie Hill are visiting friends in Montpelier.

Mrs. Cora (Perkins) Webb of New Hampshire is visiting at H. Perkins'.

The new Evansville creamery pay day was last Monday and the price was 24c for butter fat with 16c churn gain.

The Ladies' Aid Society had a very enjoyable time Thursday at U. W. Brown's Klondike cottage at Willoughby Lake. About nine o'clock in the morning the teams began to arrive, and they continued to come until nearly noon, by twos, threes and whole hay wagon loads. Seventy four people ate dinner.

BROWNINGTON CENTER.

Mrs. Patterson of Craftsbury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren House.

Mrs. Gilman McCoy, who died at Barton, was brought here for interment Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliot of Boston are visiting Mrs. Elliot's father, J. C. Orne.

Mrs. George Magoon of Barton Landing recently spent a few days with her friend, Mrs. Ed. Huse.

Miss Nina Hall, who has been visiting at J. A. Smith's for a week, returned Friday to her home in Springfield.

Georgiana St. Peter is home on a vacation from Newport, where she has been working in the overall factory.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet at the church Thursday, August 16, both afternoon and evening. Baked beans will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

The funeral of Mrs. Betsey Pierce, who died at Albany, was held at the church Friday afternoon, August 11th. She was a life resident of this town until last spring when she went to Albany to live with her son. She has been a great sufferer for two years. She leaves a son, a brother and sisters and other friends to mourn her loss. The interment was in the family lot here. Rev. G. C. McDonald, officiated.

EAST CHARLESTON.

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to the friends and neighbors who by their kind words, deeds and beautiful flowers, showed their sympathy for us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father; also to the choir for singing.

MR. AND MRS. F. B. STODDARD,
ARIEL B. COE.

CARD—We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the friends and neighbors who by their kind words, deeds and beautiful flowers, showed their sympathy for us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father; also to the choir for singing.

MR. AND MRS. B. J. FULLER,
MR. AND MRS. B. A. SEAVEY,
MR. AND MRS. C. E. MARSHALL,
H. L. ROBERTS,
JENNIE E. CAMPBELL.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stoddard sympathize with them in the death of their dear little son Albion, who died July 30, of Bright's disease, aged 2 years and 11 months. He was sick only one week. As he lay in the little white casket covered with flowers he looked as though he had only gone to sleep to soon wake on earth to the ones who loved him so dearly. The funeral was at the home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Lawrence Wilson officiating.

WEST CHARLESTON.

Harry Parlin is home from Montana.

The infant child of Clarence Bowen is very sick.

Mr. Henry Rich has been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lehard of Montpelier are visiting at Mrs. Bennett's.

The Barton Electric Light Co. are repairing their plant at Plunkett Falls.

Mrs. Spencer and son of Lyndon are staying with her sister, Mrs. Emma Reed.

Mrs. Julia Allbee has gone to West Derby to stop with her daughter, Mrs. Cushman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton are entertaining guests from Cambridge and Watertown, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton are entertaining their grandson, Niel Holton of Newbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Montgomery and a lady friend are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Rouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Miller were called to Brownington to attend the funeral of a cousin last Friday.

The republican rally at schoolhouse hall was well attended. The speakers were Fish and Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of Island Pond spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Allen.

N. H. Piper and grandson are home from Boston where they have been for several weeks. His daughter, Mrs. Bessie Cushman, is expected soon.

Christian Endeavor prayer meeting as usual Thursday evening, Subject—"Christ's Life. My Favorite Parable and How It Helps Me." Leader, Mrs. Cushman.

COVENTRY.

Mrs. Paddleford of Barnet is the guest of Mrs. A. Howard.

Rev. A. S. Bole has been in Barnet visiting his parents.

Mrs. Wilber Scott has a sister from Glover visiting her.

Dr. Walter Parker of Dorchester, Mass., is the guest of his parents.

Arthur White, formerly of this town, has purchased a creamery at Charlotte.

Mrs. R. F. Willard and children have gone to her home in Topsam on a visit.

Willis Gorham and his aunt, Mrs. Lucetta Frost, took a trip to Willoughby last Monday.

Miss Louise Johnson has come to make her home for the present with Mrs. Helen Barrows.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wheelock and children have gone to North Lawrence, New York, on a visit.

Mrs. Leroy Moulton, (Fida Cole) and children of Nashua, N. H., are in town visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bashaw of Province Hill, P. Q., visited Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hancock the past week.

Ernest Warboy is clerking for C. J. Brooks and Ernest Blake of Derby is driving the meat cart.

Myron Lewis went to South Troy last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mr. Enos Whitehouse.

Mrs. Jennie Hovey of East St. Johnsbury has been the guest of her uncle, A. B. Hancock, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patten went to Johnson to attend the funeral of Mr. Patten's nephew, Wm. Patten.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens and Homer went to South Troy Thursday to attend the funeral of Enos Whitehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Metcalf have gone to Lowell, Mass., where Mr. Metcalf has employment on the Hood stock farm.

C. J. Brooks, Mr. Barker, Levi Dean, Theda Metcalf and others took in the excursion to Burlington last Wednesday.

Remember the union picnic in Mr. Billings' grove next Wednesday. If it rains, the picnic will be held the following day.

The Bobbin Co. have commenced to haul the logs to the mill from Charles Niles' sugar orchard which they have purchased.

Mrs. L. Hilliker, who has lived in the family of H. C. Cleveland for the past few months, has gone to her home in Newport Center. She is in poor health.

George Heerman, Alvah Smith's family, Mrs. Robert Tice, Mrs. Jessie Randall and daughter and Miss Jeanette Vance have been camping at Willoughby.

Dr. Longe of Newport and Dr. R. F. Willard performed an operation on Mrs. Wm. Brooks last Friday. She is doing well so far and it is hoped she may fully regain her health.

The W. C. T. U. will sell ice cream, cake, lemonade and so forth in the schoolhouse yard in the afternoon of Freeman's meeting day, September 4th. It is hoped that all voters after voting the right ticket will patronize the ladies who will have the right drink which will be reasonable and refreshing.

CRAFTSBURY.

George Merrill and sons spent last Thursday at Casplan Lake.

Mrs. John Poor from Wolcott spent some time in town last week.

W. H. Farr has purchased of the J. T. Urle estate the Charles Hoyt farm.

Mr. J. C. Allen from Burlington, a former resident, spent last week in this town.

Quite a number of the Grangers attended the Pomona Grange picnic at Walden last Saturday.

Leota Stratton left last Wednesday for Danville, where she will do table work at the Danville Inn.

Several from this part of the town attended the concert at North Craftsbury last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Emma McKinley and son from Lowell, Mass., came last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dorman.

A picnic was held at L. F. Smith's camp last Friday at which many of the friends and relatives of the Lyon visitors were represented.

Fletcher D. Proctor and Zed S. Stanton will be the speakers at a republican rally to be held here at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, August 21.

Mr. Bennie Lyon and two sisters, Lola and Blanche, children of Royal Lyon, a former townsman, now of Iowa, are spending a few days in town visiting friends and relatives.

Rosa Smith gave her Sunday school class a fine entertainment in a grove near her house last Wednesday afternoon. The children more than appreciate the treat she gave them.

EAST CRAFTSBURY.

Dr. and Mrs. Udall are visiting Taylor.

Miss Maude Macomber is visiting White River Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maltby and daughter are spending a short time at Dutton's.

Mrs. R. B. Lang and children have turned to their home in White Junction.

Mrs. W. A. Wylie and daughters and Margaret visited their aunt, Mrs. Taylor, last week.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY.

Miss Winnifred Williams is home short vacation.

Clarke Allen of Burlington was in a few days last week.

Miss Splain of Boston is stopping at Shohan's for a few weeks.

Prof. Thompson of Boston was at Mrs. Sheehan's recently.

A. Shields is helping take the inventory in the store of A. Paddock.

Mrs. Clara Whitney Tenney is a guest of E. T. Wheeler's for a few weeks.

Miss Jane Reed accompanied by mother is at the Colburn cottage.

Miss Florence Felix is visiting grandmother, Mrs. J. O. Douglas.

Miss Pitman of Laconia, N. H., was in town recently to attend the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings and little daughter are visiting Mrs. Jennings' sister, J. E. Colburn.

Mrs. J. O. Douglas, who had the fortune to sprain her ankle quite badly last week, is much better.

Mr. Ben Lyon accompanied by his sisters, Blanche and Lola, of Hamm Ind., is in town for a few days visiting relatives and friends.

The following is the result of the ball game played by the Craftsbury Wolcott teams:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Craftsbury	0	1	0	0	0	4	3	5
Wolcott	1	0	0	0	0	1	1	1

Two base hit, H. Lyon; three base hit, Lyon. First on balls off Lyon 1, off H. 2; struck out by Etton 5, by Hitchcock by Lyon 16; left on bases, Craftsbury Wolcott 4. Time, 1 hr. 30 min. Ump D. Miles.

DERBY.

Mrs. W. S. Robbins has a new Board & Gray piano.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilder are at the cottage this week.

Miss Emily Taylor had a new piano in her home her birthday, Aug. 9.

Mrs. Lother is away. Miss Ellen Dup is assisting at the telephone office.

Dr. Walter Parker of Dorchester, Mass., is with his family at A. A. Silver's.

Miss Blanche Griggs has gone to No. 2 Troy to visit Miss Rachel Hammond.

Some big bass are being hooked from Salem Pond these days. Such good fishing ground is sure to become a more popular resort as the seasons pass.

GLOVER.

Minnie B. Sargent of Lowell, Mass., is in town.

Nina Wylie has been visiting her friend Mrs. Nelson Stevens.

Mrs. R. S. Drew, who was sick last week, is better at this writing.

Mrs. James Young is quite sick. Mate Dewing is caring for her.

Mrs. Annie L. Gray of Despatch, N. Y., is visiting friends in town.

Will Findlay from Nebraska is calling on his many friends in Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Salmon attend a funeral in Calais last Sunday.

Minnie K. Smith, who has been visiting in Lowell, Mass., has returned home.

M. M. French of Worcester, Mass., spending a few days at J. F. Taylor's.

Miss Susie Whitney of Manchester, N. H., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fannie Carr.

Miss Hortense Murch of Lyndonville has been spending a few days in town.

The E. R. Howe buildings in South Glover were burned the evening of the 6th.

Mrs. Eunice Colby of Sherbrooke has come to spend a few weeks with her brothers, Isaac and William Drew.

George Wilson and family, and Miss Minnie B. Sargent are camping in Amos Bean's cottage at Stone Pond.

Chauncey Kelton, Miss Ham, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelton of New York arrived Thursday night on their automobile at Kelton's.

Fern, son of Irving Anderson, had the misfortune to break his arm last week while visiting his uncle, Walter Anderson, in Barton.

Mrs. Hancock and Mrs. George Chandler of Lowell, Mass., have arrived in town. They will stay at Mrs. Hancock's house and take meals at Glover Inn.

Quite an accident occurred Friday. As our stage driver, Mr. Brown, was making his noon trip to Barton with the mail, his horse, becoming frightened at an automobile, jumped over the bank below Mr. Reed's, breaking the wagon quite badly. No serious injuries are reported.

The state highway tax in the town of Glover for 1906 was $222.04. Her apportionment by the state was $553.67. Her gain under the present system of taxation was $331.63. Mr. Clement's platform would deprive Glover of this material gain. Will the voters of Glover stand for it?

WEST GLOVER.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will hold a working meeting at the schoolhouse hall Thursday afternoon, August 16.

According to the custom in town, the representative to the state legislature will be from this side, this year, and the name of Alex. Shields has been filed as the candidate. Mr. Shields is a worthy man and we expect a harmonious election.

GREENSBORO.

Rev. R. J. Barton is absent on a vacation.

The Salisbury family left for their home in Randolph last Thursday.

Orleans County Republican Rallies

Orleans County towns are to be favored with some of the best campaign speakers on the platform for the Republican party, and Fletcher D. Proctor himself will appear with other speakers at the following places on the following dates. Plan to attend at least one of these rallies.